

Editorial Note

I am pleased to inform that the Winter issue 2012 of the Review of Economics and Institutions is the first valuable contribution of the renewed team of Managing Editors. Since October 2011 Paolo Polinori (University of Perugia) and Andrea Presbitero (Università Politecnica delle Marche) have joined Francesco Venturini (University of Perugia) and will serve as new Managing Editors for the incoming years. With the 2011 Fall issue Cristiano Perugini has completed his office and has left the managing board. I wish to warmly thank Cristiano for his contribution to the launch of the Journal and for the work done in the first five issues.
